Merete's Moset for the Lee Statue.

The following is from a gentleman who, for scholarship and public services, has more than a State reputation:

To the Faltor of the Dispotch:

It is only lately that I have had an opportunity of seeing the model of the Lee statue sent over by the artist Mercie.

As one of the people for whom it is to be statue sent over by the artist Mercie.

As one of the people for whom it is to be receded, I claim the right to criticise it. That my comments are just will be tested by any one who reads them while he sol by any one who reads them while he sel by any one who reads them while he sel by any one who reads the more, but the signs of distinguished American actor integration are apparent on every hand.
